Dear Mr. Rahal:

On October 31, 2000, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your November 15, 2000, response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-Your committee filed a 48 hour notice disclosing a "last minute" contribution from Paul H. Hiller, III on 6/6/00. This contribution does not appear on a Schedule A of this report. Please amend your report to include this contribution or provide an explanation of this apparent discrepancy.

An adequate response must be received at the Commission by December 12, 2000. Adequate responses received on or before this date will be taken into consideration in determining whether audit action will be initiated. Requests for extensions of time in which to respond will not be considered. Failure to provide an adequate response by this date may result in an audit of the committee. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act may also result in an enforcement action against the committee. Any response submitted by your committee will be placed on the public record and will be considered by the Commission prior to taking enforcement action.

If you should have any questions related to this matter, please contact Jill Sugarman on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 1, then press 2 to
